

Looking to connect your teens to Israel in an innovative, powerful way?

Bring Modern Israel to Life -
The ARTSY/ארצי Seminar on
Israeli Culture & Jewish Life

Program includes:

- ❖ Powerful educational and cultural resources to spark important conversations about Israeli society with your teens
- ❖ Critical skill-building in experiential education
- ❖ A year-long mentorship with an experiential Israel educator
- ❖ Access to a network of Jewish experiential educators across North America and Israel

Who is the seminar for?

Professionals who create Jewish experiences for youth grades 6-12, including but not limited to:

- ❖ Year-round youth groups, summer camps, JCCs, student clubs, day schools, and more

Details:

- ❖ Date: October 29 - November 1, 2006
- ❖ Location: Capital Camps Retreat Center, outside of D.C.
- ❖ Fee: $100 per participant plus transportation to D.C. (to be covered by your agency)
- ❖ Application deadline: Sept. 7, 2006 (applicants will be notified via email by Sept. 15)
- ❖ Contact: Naomi Korb at naomi@jexnet.org

Proudly sponsored by JEXNET: The Network for Experiential Jewish Youth Education (formerly the North American Alliance for Jewish Youth), Makom: The Israel Engagement Network (formerly NACIE), The Jewish Agency for Israel and UJA-Federation of New York.